IN MEMORY

A friend is gone—and yet, he lives for all of us within the memory laden halls of M.H.S. For it was here that his ready smile and helping hand met the troubled student, here, he offered guidance and aid. Here it was, that he loved his labor as a teacher and here each student became his friend.

By his actions, he inspired; by his labors he achieved, and so, in tribute we say . . .

Because you gave us with your time, your skill and with a patience beyond any words we know, the will to learn, the wish to try, to grow, to know right from wrong, to cling to ideals until our destinies we fulfill.

Our humble tribute now we extend to you our TEACHER, COUNSELOR & FRIEND.

All school activities and functions, although carried out by students, were successful due to the endless efforts and sincere advice of the faculty. Each teacher in addition to teaching classes, played the role of a class or organization adviser. The successful accomplishments of the '65-'66 school year can be attributed to an understanding, hardworking, helpful facuity.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mr. Powell

Advisers

Mr. Skinner

Working long hours every day, Mrs. Tolley competently handled the routine student problems and business affairs of the office.

MRS. MARIE TOLLEY

Mr. Ward, spending much time and effort, gave many students individual counseling and advice to aid them in their present schoolwork and future careers.

MR. LA VELL WARD

AUXILIARY HELP

Mrs. Messerly, Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Goebel, Mrs. Williamson, and Mrs. Jacobsen work long hours each day to prepare school hot lunches for students and teachers.

Roger Jensen, assisted by Dallas Dorney and Wayne Law (not shown), kept the school in top condition throughout the year. He also helped install the loud speaker system in the gym, as well as many other conveniences.

Dallas Dorney, LeRoy Ludwig, Rufus Doman, and Berdean Black, some of this year's bus drivers, aptly accomplished their duty of bringing the students to and from school, as well as football and basketball games, and other school functions.

CLASSES

Tradition established the definite distinctions between the classes at MHS and the studentbody of 1966 followed along the historic lines. We had our MIGHTY Seniors, our JUBILANT Juniors and our Sassy Sophomores and Fearing Freshmen and yet class distinction melted into the background behind the battle cry "Go Bears Go!" We rallied into a united studentbody and as such we pledged our efforts to a greater, happier and more satisfying MHS.

Leaving with a sigh of relief, a smile on their faces, and a store of knowledge, the class of "66" can now look forward to facing the big, wide world.

Under the leadership of Craig Hirschi, President and Bruce Carver, Vice-President, they supervised the whitewashing of the "M", sold themselves as slaves, took everyone on a "Sleigh Ride" at their senior ball, and held tricycle drag races at their class party.

Renee Hayes, secretary, ably kept minutes of all class meetings and served as head of the announcement committee.

Under the direction of Jeanne Rich and Pat Freeman, assembly committeemen, the seniors presented an outstanding assembly, highlighting four years of hard work.

Craig Williamson (Willy), representing the senior class in student council, worked hard seeing to it that dates and activities passed the council.

With the Junior Prom now over, the class assembly successfully presented, and the class parties in the past, the juniors can look back with happy memories of their junior year.

Through the leadership of Scott Kunz, President; Bob Powell, Vice President; and Norma Taggart, Secretary, the junior class had rewarding events.

The class assembly, under the direction of Rhonda Bateman, assembly committeewoman, brought to MHS good entertainment.

Nate Bischoff ably represented the juniors in student council this past year.

"Miss" Kunz and "Miss" Smith exchange loving glances during the junior class assembly's girls' (?) dance.

The sophomore class, under the direction of Gregg Miller, President, and Spencer Hirschi, Vice President, can boast of a very successful year. Not only did they present a class assembly under the direction of Verla Parker, assembly committeewoman, but they also held two class parties.

Secretary Joyce Johnson made sure minutes of all class meetings were kept. Cheryl Tolley represented the sophomores in student council.

Now that the year has come to an end, the Freshmen can look happily back on their first year at MHS. Under the direction of David Hirschi, President, they held a successful class party and did a very good job white-washing the "M".

Serving right along with David, helping carry out all planned activities, was Scott Loveless, vice-president.

Dee Ann Smith, secretary, saw to it that the meager class treasury was kept in order and minutes of all class meetings were kept accurately.

Johnny Aland represented the freshmen in student council, seeing to it that all dates were passed.

Kevin Bissegger directed the presentation of the fine freshman assembly.

ORGANIZATIONS

Whether an assembly, a rehearsal, a dance or a play it's the efforts of the organization that brings the process to perfection.

MHS organizations are plentiful and ambitious. Any student desirous of extra-curricular participation can find a variety of choices available.

Officers are: Pres. Karol Teuscher, V.P. Eric Jensen, Sec. Steve Wright, Parliamentarian Shiela Homer.

F.T.A

The hardworking FTA chapter at MHS served as "teacher aides", correcting papers, substituting and in general, they proved their worth as candidates for the educational profession.

Adviser, Mrs. Adams

ACTIVITIES

There is no doubt in the minds of the faculty or the studentbody that the prime purpose of an educational institution is to get an education but it often takes more than the efforts of a master teacher to convince the student that the ACTIVITIES are not the reason they are here.

Certain to meet with approval from everyone is the statement that: THIS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES ARE THE BEST THAT MHS HAS YET PRODUCED.

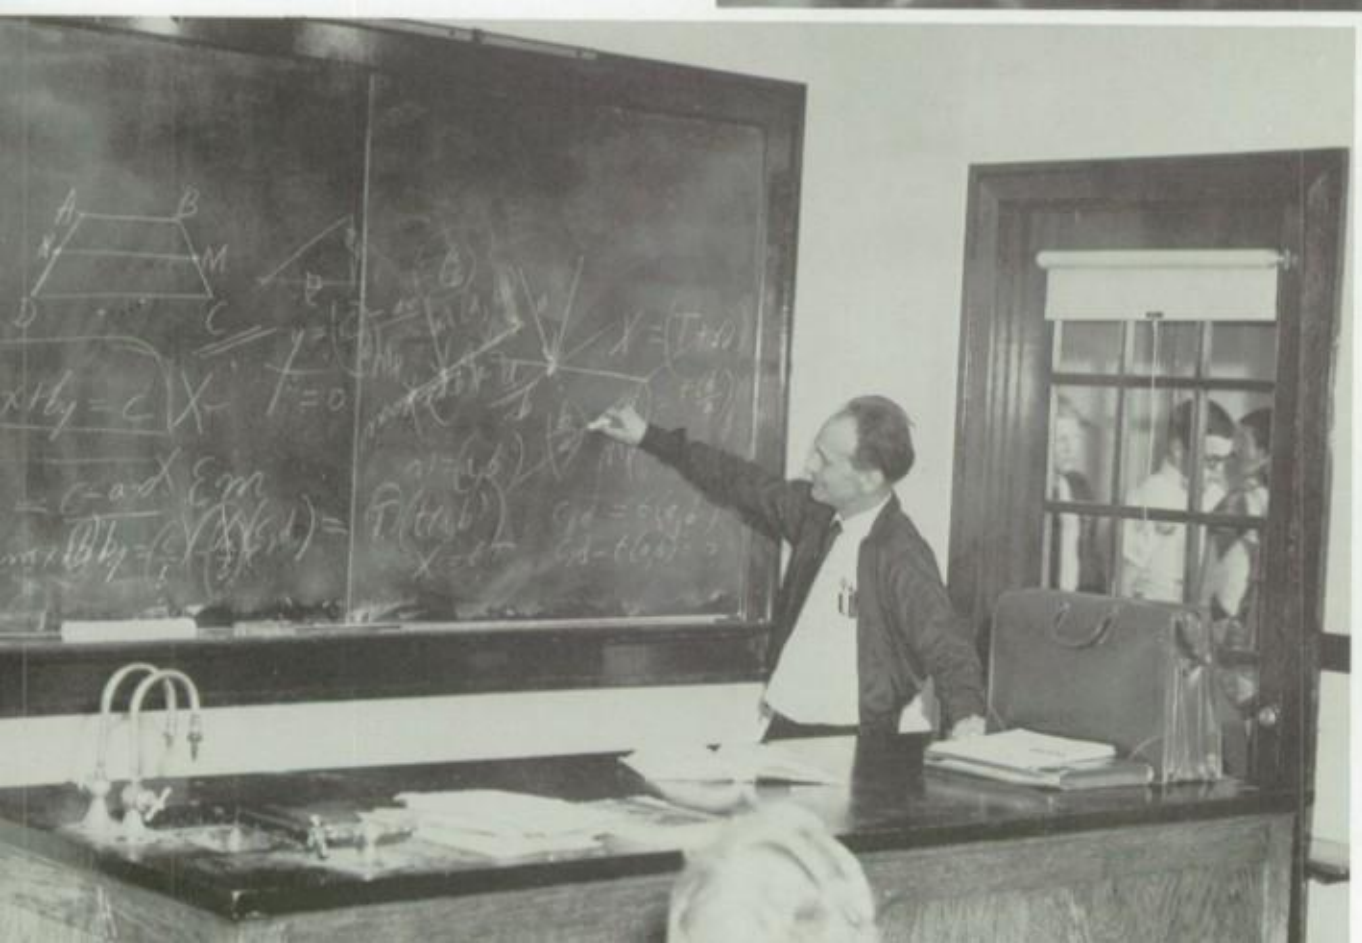
STUDENT LIFE

Girls' P.E. class members appear to be quite tired out and not very anxious to intercept Joleen Portela's attempted field goal.

Bill Cobb and Maxine Walker appear to be free from classroom worries on one of the many bus trips of the year.



Mr. Call's Math Analysis class discusses basic analytical geometry.

ASSEMBLIES

The Grace Madrigals presented many renditions to the studentbody during their exchange assembly here in March.

The Sophomore Sextet — Anne Rowsell, Cheryl Tolley, Sylvia Thornock, Linda Kunz, Penny Pitchford, and Brenda Schofield — gave a little taste of the "wild West" in their Sophomore Assembly.

Maxine Walker as Lizzie and Marsha Stephens as Aunt Dodie talk over their problems as colored folks in the post-Civil War days in the Speech play, "Forgive Me Lawd."

A modern Little Red Riding Hood and big bad wolf are portrayed here by Grace students in their exchange assembly.

ASSEMBLIES

Jeanne Rich is in the spotlight during the Pep Club Spring Fashion Show while Lenna Jacobson, Bonnie Woolstenhulme, and Faye LaRocco look on.

Three famous (?) doctors are seen giving advice to the MHS studentbody during the Paris exchange assembly.

Allyn Phelps and Kevin Bissegger seem very happy and demonstrate their dancing ability during the one-act speech play, "Forgive Me Lawd."

"THE CURIOUS SAVAGE"

Kiera Lewis as Mrs. Savage reveals a piece of shocking information to Nate Bischoff, Scott Kunz, Pennie Smith, and Maxine Walker (Florence).

Kiera Lewis tells Robert Peterson (Sen. Titus Savage) and Shiela Homer (Lillebell Savage) why her teddybear has only one eye.

Pennie Smith (Fairy Mae), petrified by a mouse, helplessly stands on a chair as Scott Kunz (Hannibal) and Nate Bischoff (Jeffrey) gossip and Gaylen Clayton (Miss Willey) busies herself.

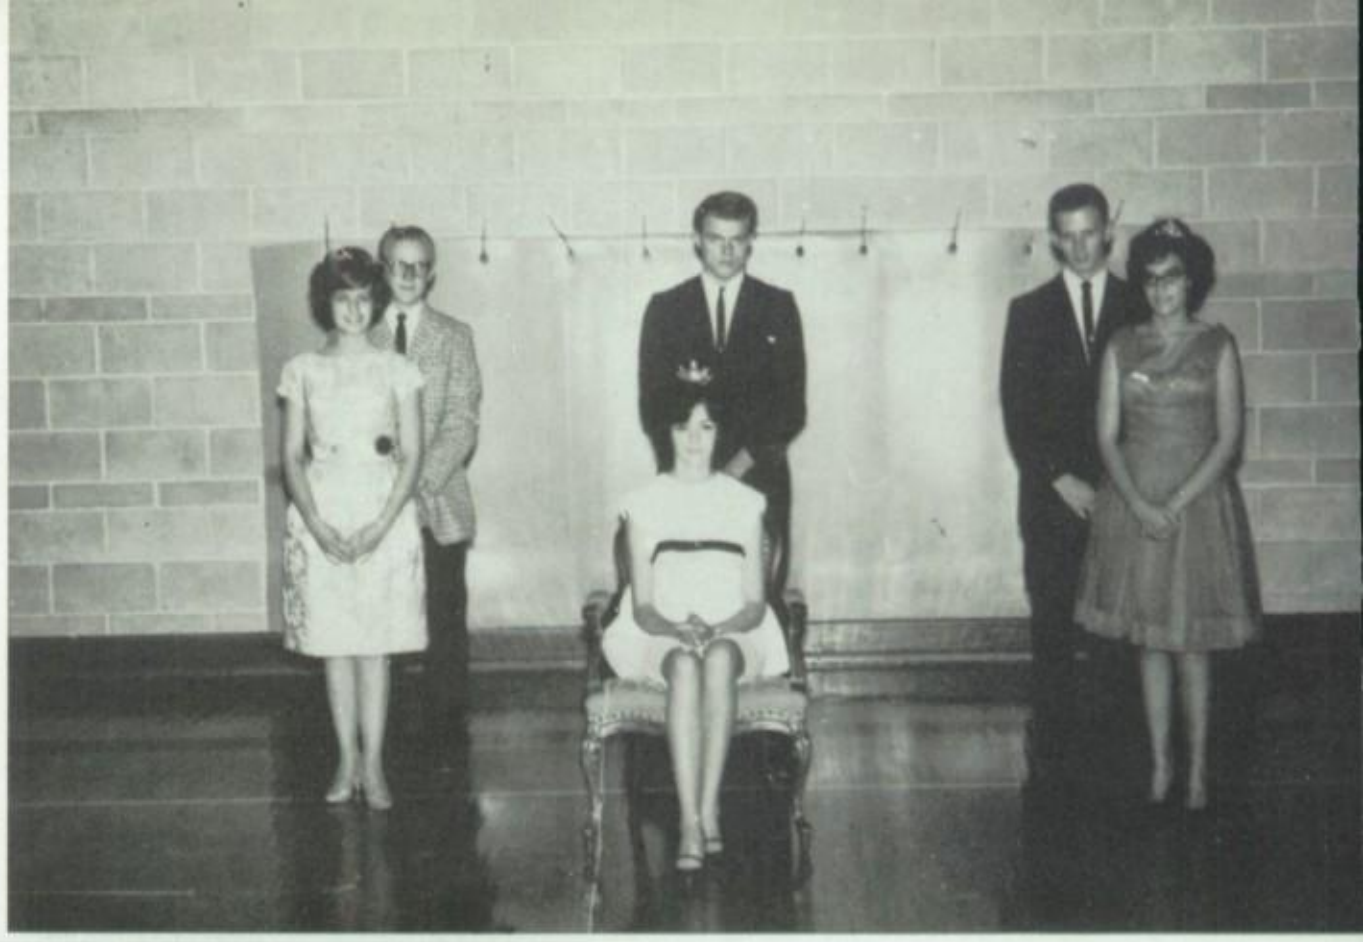
DANCES



The Homecoming Royalty—Lenna Jacobson, Linda Kunz, and Diane Davidson—are crowned by Letterman Club officers—Randy Deets, Sherwin Mangum, and Jim Shepherd—at the Homecoming Dance.

Members of the MHS student body and their dates seem to be having a good time dancing to the music of Keith Jensen and his orchestra at the annual FFA Sweetheart Ball.

BANQUETS

The Pepettes end a successful year at their annual banquet held at the Vir-Day Cafe May 9.

At the athletic banquet, attended by Coach Stan Watts of B.Y.U., the wrestlers receive recognition.

The Seniors and parents conclude the school year with a turkey dinner at the Senior Banquet held May 21.

GIRLS' STATE—Attending Girls' State this year were Marcile Wilde and Sherry Phelps

YOUTH LEGISLATURE—Representing MHS at Youth Legislature this year were Nate Bischoff, Norma Taggart, Elizabeth Evans, and Brent Peterson

BOYS' STATE—Scot Kunz and Brent Peterson were this year's delegates to Boys' State

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

The seniors and their parents are entertained at the after-graduation banquet by identifying their classmates from baby pictures shown on a screen.

SENIOR

The '66 graduates enthusiastically celebrate at the Centre Theater, one of the many places of entertainment provided for their all-night party.

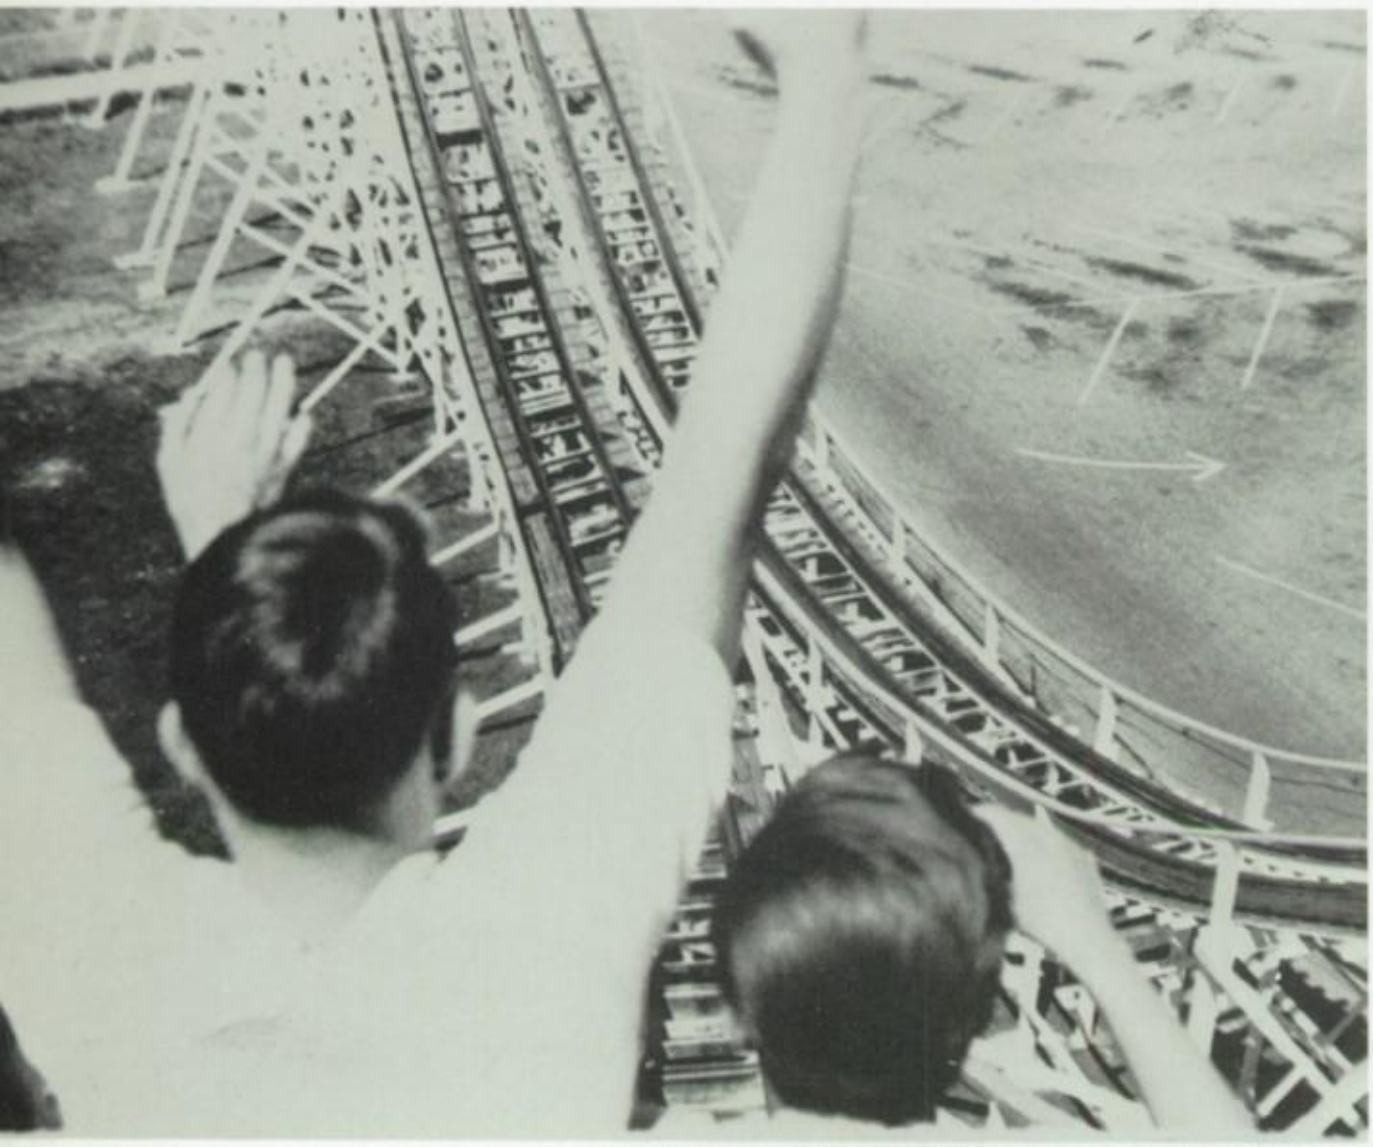
A few seniors (Wayne Law, Ruth Tueller, Allen Kunz, Jeanne Rich, Craig Williamson and Linda Wilcox) put forth what energy they have left at the Bird Farm Dance.

David Lindsay, JoAnn Grimes, Cecil Taylor, Pat Freeman and Lynne Michaelson, struggle to stay awake after the all night party.

ACTIVITIES

The graduated seniors excitedly anticipate a full day at Lagoon as Mr. Wilde naps.

The seniors terminated their celebrating at Lagoon, where they were entertained by Gary Lewis and the Playboys Saturday Night.



Graduates found that they could best fight sleep with such devices as the roller coaster.

As part of their after-graduation activities most seniors sought further excitement by riding the roller coaster.

Evan Eastley and Bob Langford are photographed as they endure the thrills of the roller coaster at Lagoon.

The sports seasons are all over again for another year for the Bears of MHS.

For those who have participated throughout the year, they have made many successes and many sacrifices. Athletics is a builder of men and surely because the Bears have shown strong team participation, they have in sense become true men.

Despite the scores posted throughout the year, the Bears have admirably shown themselves to be a very capable team. Under the direction of two new young coaches, the Bears marched through a season that proved to be one of rejuvenation for a rather fallen name of MHS. Although there will be a loss of fine Senior athletes, we expect to see the fine tradition and pride of MHS carried on by those who will yet play for the Bears.

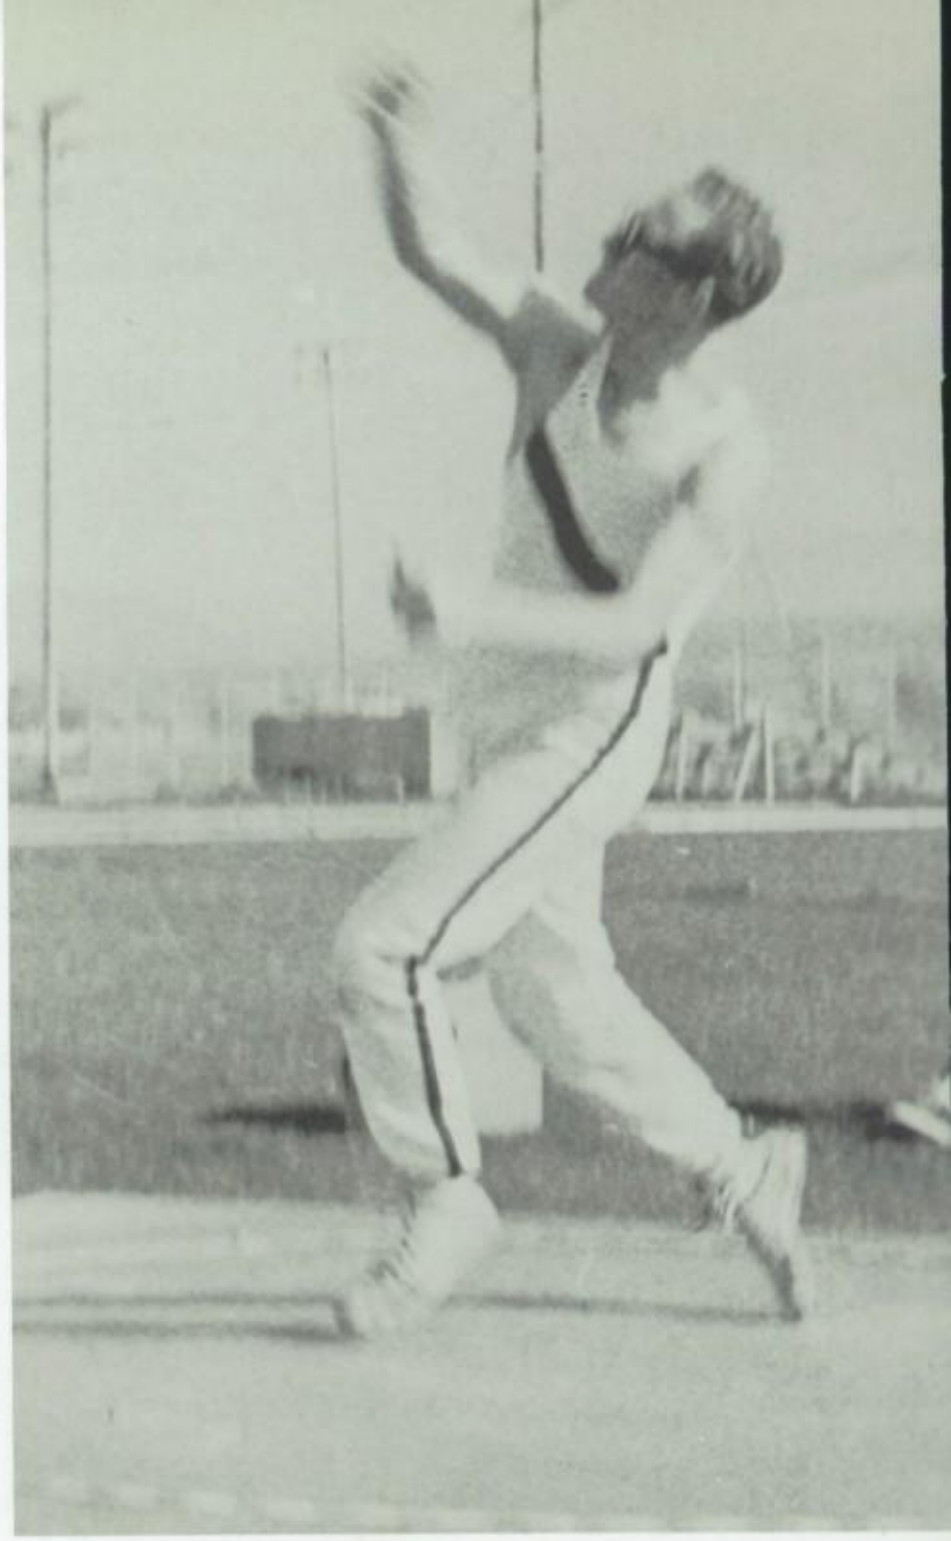
WRESTLING

Under the expert coaching of Coaches Sparks and Ward, wrestling in M.H.S. this year gained new heights of proficiency and excellence. This year's squad exhibited the talent and stamina which labeled them a truly superior team of sportsmen. As proof, at the height of the season, Merlin Lindsay placed second in Idaho in the 115 pound weight class, becoming the first M.H.S. matman to become a state champion. It is our hope that this will be the first of a long line of outstanding years for M.H.S. wrestlers.

TRACK AND FIELD



Throwing the discus, Pat George sets a new record for M.H.S.

Having qualified for regional, Steve Rich receives third place in the broad jump.

Sherwin Mangum puts the shot at the Soda Springs Invitational.

Scott Clark heaves the shot in an endeavor to capture a standing at the Soda Tourney.

In the closing steps of the 880 relay, Wakely of Marsh Valley edges out M.H.S.'s Randy Deets for 1st place.

all my many problems, because now if they ever occur again I can tackel them.
